

ROOSTERS TO GREET THE SUN

Health Board Commands Fowls of Flushing to Refrain from Crowing Until Seven o'Clock A. M.

F. B. SEELEY COULDN'T SLEEP

He Makes Complaint and "The Pride of Boerum Avenue" and "Kim" Are Kept Silent.

No claxon notes of chattering may now disturb Flushing until the sun is three hours high and more, for orders signed by the Board of Health direct that no rooster shall crow before seven o'clock in the morning.

Among the silent at the dawn of yesterday was Samuel W. McCreery's Leghorn, known as "The Pride of Boerum Avenue," which for the last two years has been a valuable adjunct to the volunteer fire department. It was his custom whenever a suspicious glow appeared in the sky to give warning, and in this way he had supplied the regular alarm apparatus. The placing of an electric street lamp in the neighborhood of the McCreery house was one of the causes which led to a complaint being lodged against him, and he has been called a false prophet.

Another of the offenders is Kim, a bantam, the featherweight champion of Flushing, who belongs to Robert A. Linden, of No. 32 Boerum avenue. The unfortunate fowl sat up all Saturday night with one eye on a cheap alarm clock and the other gazing wondrously on the sky, but many of them were carefully eliminated the weeds from between the rows of vegetables by a dexterous use of their claws.

No complaints were made against the gallantest population until two weeks ago, when Frank B. Seeley, a member of the well-known family of the city, and Mrs. Seeley were unable to sleep on account of the activities of Kim and of "The Pride of Boerum Avenue" and he lodged formal complaint against the offenders at the branch of the Department of Health at Jamaica.

Patrick Burke, town inspector, visited Flushing last week and made a coop to coop crows. Following his inspection, postals were received from the residents of No. 32 Boerum avenue, half a block from the complainant.

THESE ARE THE WARNING.

DEAR SIR—You have been notified by the Board of Health that the crowing of roosters is a nuisance and detrimental to health. If the crowing of said roosters is not suppressed until seven o'clock A. M. daily the Board of Health will take action.

Mr. Linden has been away for several days and his chickens are guarded by a negro youth in whom he has a high degree of confidence.

Mrs. Kasonski, an aunt of Mr. Linden, said that she did not know exactly what to do about the order, which she had accepted in the absence of her nephew.

"The telephone company may lend us a sound proof booth," she remarked, "and if the matter cannot be arranged in that way perhaps the fowls might be kept in the cellar. I have also an offer from a travelling photographer to use his gallery, which is equipped with an excellent dark room."

Kim was seen yesterday walking up and down his coop, making up for lost time. "The Pride of Boerum Avenue" was found in the salt meadows, in the neighborhood of Flushing, for he has been sent into temporary exile, pending a decision of the question of the jurisdiction of the Board of Health over crows and chickens.

Several small roosters who crowded yesterday morning five minutes in advance of the legal hour were hurried to execution, for their pleas that they were merely turning up were not accepted.

Mr. Seeley was seen yesterday at his home at No. 41 Broadway, Flushing. His face in repose is habitually sad and when asked about the roosters his countenance became still more rueful.

IT IS HARD TO EXPLAIN.

"How will you be able," I asked, "to prevent a rooster from crowing daily before seven?"

Mr. Seeley dodged behind the door for the purpose which a chicken has in mind when it crosses the road. From the other side of the door he said he would be accused of being a nuisance.

Dr. E. J. Maynard, acting registrar of the Department of Health for Queens borough, who has charge of the office at Jamaica, said yesterday afternoon that he did not know how a rooster could be prevented from crowing before the appointed time.

"Perhaps," he suggested, "one might keep the coops very dark, or covered, or would keep the fowls in the coops for a long time. The people of Flushing are now citizens of New York city, and as such they must conform to the regulations of the municipal Health Department."

"When chickens are kept within the city limits a permit must be obtained. We cannot, perhaps, dictate the hour at which roosters may crow, yet at the same time the fowls should not become public nuisances."

MADE INSANE BY ENGINE

Continued Noise of Pumping Near Her Home Sends Bloomfield Woman to an Asylum.

Margaret Beaton, thirty-five years of age, was committed to the Essex County Asylum for the Insane by Recorder Post, of Bloomfield, N. J., yesterday.

Miss Beaton resided in Race street near where an engine is continually pumping water. The other evening she ran up to Policeman Gilbert Smith clad only in her night clothing and told him that the street was full of burglars who were singing and talking about her. She believed that the continual noise made by the engine is the cause of her mental derangement.

MRS. R. T. ROBERTS HURT

In Collision with Horse Driven by Mrs. Cornelius Fellowes, Jr., at Saratoga.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.] SARATOGA, N. Y., Sunday.—Mrs. Robert Fyler Roberts, who has apartments at the Marie Antoinette Hotel, in New York, and who is staying for the season at the United States Hotel, had a narrow escape from a serious accident last night.

Mrs. Roberts, with Mrs. Hopkins and Miss Keenan of Washington, and Mrs. John W. Ryan, had driven out to Arrowhead, when Mrs. Cornelius Fellowes, Jr., in a surrey, came from the opposite direction.

The horse driven by Mrs. Fellowes was spirited, and was controlled with much difficulty. There was a clear road, but in spite of the fact the surrey was driven close to the carriage, from which the four women were alighting. Mrs. Hopkins, Miss Keenan and Mrs. Ryan succeeded in getting out of the way, but Mrs. Roberts was struck by one of the wheels of the surrey and after being whirled about was thrown with some violence to the ground. Her companions thought that she was seriously injured, but were relieved to find the injuries slight.

MONS. AUGUSTO GUIDI

Archbishop Guidi To Be a Cardinal

Man Who Has Earned Reputation as a Diplomat and Who Was the Confidential Adviser of Pope Leo XIII. Soon To Be Promoted.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD.] MANILA, P. I., Sunday.—It is said here that Mr. Guidi, the Papal Delegate in the Philippines, will shortly be created a Cardinal.

Augusto Luigi's Rapid Rise in the Councils of His Church.

Should Mr. Guidi be made a Cardinal, as indicated in the Manila cablegram, it would be considered as a mark of commendation for his work in the Philippines as Papal Delegate. When he was consecrated an Archbishop, on September 23, 1902, it was said with a show of authority that "his name was somewhere concealed in a chalice," meaning that his further promotion to be a Cardinal was in contemplation.

Mr. Guidi comes from a noble Roman family and since his earliest days in the Church has earned fame as a diplomat. He was named as a problem, the Church diplomat was made an Archbishop and at once dispatched to Manila as an Apostolic Delegate.

Born in 1852, Augusto Guidi will be one of the youngest of Cardinals, if not the very youngest, if the red hat is conferred on him soon.

He had been there not very long when he was summoned to Rome to become Secretary of the Congregation of Extraordinary Ecclesiastical Affairs. Occupying apartments in the Vatican, he had easy access to the Pope and soon became his confidential adviser. As such he wielded an influence entirely out of proportion with the position he occupied.

His Church career began with the election of Pope Leo XIII. In whose good graces he ever stood. He was made Secretary of the Nunciature at Madrid, this appointment being considered in itself a promise of better things to come should the appointee display ability. Promotion came rapidly. From Madrid the Secretary was sent to Lisbon to occupy a similar position and then he was made Auditor at Munich.

FLED TO HEN COOP RECORD YEAR IN TO ESCAPE WIFE TRADE WITH CANADA

Mount Vernon Temperance Worker, Exports and Imports Greater Than Driven from Home, Sought They Ever Were Between Refuge with Chickens. Two Countries.

SLEPT THERE FOR A MONTH EXPORTS REACH $123,472,416

When Mrs. Pugsley Smashed Windows and Wrecked His Carriage Mr. Pugsley Got a Warrant.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.] MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Sunday.—William H. Pugsley, a contractor and temperance worker, appeared before Judge Syme, in the Mount Vernon Police Court, this morning, and swore out a warrant for his wife, Anna, on a charge of malicious mischief.

He said she smashed all the windows in the front part of his cottage, drove away James Duffy, his hired man, with a club and ruined his buggy.

Mr. Pugsley, who is sixty years old, told Judge Syme that four weeks ago his wife drove him out of his house and ever since then he has been forced to sleep in a chicken coop. He said he transferred by fit and farr from a miniature bedroom by fit and farr to a bunk and a cook stove, so that he could cook his meals, as he is afraid his wife will poison him.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. Pugsley wanted to wash his wagon, but when he attached a hose to a faucet in the kitchen, he alleges, his wife turned off the water and would not let the hired man get water to give his horses drink.

"My wife is a regular Tartar," said Mr. Pugsley. "She wants to run everything and won't let me do a thing. I won't stand it any longer. In addition to shutting off the water she took a club and smashed 300 worth of glass in the front windows of my house and then she smashed the dashboard and sent me to the hospital for four weeks. I have slept in a hen house and have not laid on a decent bed in all that time."

Mr. Pugsley is not tall and muscular, but Mrs. Pugsley is.

United States Has Imported to Value of $54,660,410 from the Dominion.

HERALD BUREAU, No. 72 FIFTH AVENUE, N. Y.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sunday.

Trade with Canada in the year just ended reached its high water mark. Both in imports and exports the commerce between the two countries exceeded that in any previous year.

Statistics compiled at the Department of Commerce and Labor show that imports from Canada last year amounted to $54,660,410 and the exports to Canada $123,472,416. By Canada is meant British Columbia, Quebec, Ontario, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

About $38,000,000 of the imports was from Quebec and Ontario, $10,000,000 from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and $6,000,000 from British Columbia. Of the exports $10,000,000 was to Quebec and Ontario, $10,000,000 to New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and $6,000,000 to British Columbia.

The imports never before reached so much as $54,660,410. The exports never before reached so much as $123,472,416. The imports in 1902 were $48,000,000. The exports in 1902 were $109,000,000. The Canadian tariff has given to the products and manufactures of the United Kingdom and most of its colonies a reduction of twelve and a half per cent. In the tariff rates since April, 1897, twenty-five per cent from August, 1898, to July 1, 1900, and since that date a reduction of thirty-three per cent.

It was during that period that the most rapid growth in the exports from the United States to Canada took place. The exports over the year 1897 increased ninety per cent, while the increase in the total exports meantime has been about forty per cent.

Mr. Pugsley is not tall and muscular, but Mrs. Pugsley is.

SIX NEAR TO DEATH IN SUSPICIOUS FIRE

Thirty-Two Persons in Peril in Smoke-Filled House in Third Avenue.

STARTED IN A BARBER SHOP

Policemen Rescue Unconscious Tenants and Lead Frightened Families to Safety—Fire Marshal Investigating.

Aided by the police of the East 126th street station, Fire Marshal Freely has begun an investigation into a fire at No. 234 Third avenue yesterday, where thirty-two persons were put in jeopardy, some of whom barely escaped death.

On the ground floor of the building is a barber shop, said to be owned by John Vuoci and occupied by him for about six months.

The cracking of the plate glass in the window at three o'clock yesterday morning revealed the fire to Policeman Elliott. He has told the Fire Marshal and detectives that he saw three different flames in the shop, one from a gas stove, another from a pile of towels on the floor and the third from a towel closet four feet from the stove.

On the three floors above the shop live the thirty-two tenants, thirteen men and women and nineteen children. Elliott and Policeman Flood dashed up through the smoke-filled hallway to alarm the sleeping persons.

On the floor above the shop they found Robert Spitalnick, his wife and six children suffocated by the smoke. They were aroused when Elliott burst in the door. Spitalnick's mother and father, seventy-four and seventy years old respectively, were found unconscious in their apartments and were carried to the street. E. Steiner, his wife and child were led through the smoke to safety.

On the third floor the policemen found escape cut off by the smoke and after a search through the smoking hall they found the couple to the roof. Up the ladder leading to the roof the families of Meyer Daxie and Richard Hoenig, who has a wife and six children, and the Friedmanns and the Rabinowitz families. All were shrieking in fear and clad only in night clothes. They were taken to the street through a neighboring house.

Elliott's testimony, which was corroborated by firemen and policemen, induced the Fire Marshal to act. As the firemen cut the fire off from the house about 3:30 damage to the shop, he intimates that the investigation can proceed easily.

Vuoci is said to have had $2,000 insurance on his shop.

BANS "LOOP THE LOOP"

Police Commissioner Says There Shall Be No More Such Dangerous Exhibitions in City.

There will be no more exhibitions of the loop-the-loop at a Coney Island or elsewhere within the jurisdiction of Police Commissioner Greene. Peremptorily he ordered the exhibitions to cease yesterday, after viewing the apparatus, in view of the probably fatal injuries to one performer and the possibility of another within the last eight days.

"It is a most reckless and foolhardy stunt," he said, "and though I realize that the next performer might loop-the-loop without accident for a long time, yet he would be taking grave chances and I cannot allow the exhibitions to be continued."

CLOSE MILLS FOR VACATION.

American Woollen Company Suspends Work for Two Weeks to Give Employees Rest.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sunday.—The Burlington, Vt., Woollen and Colchester mills of the American Woollen Company will not resume operations to-morrow, orders having been received for a two weeks' suspension.

In addition to the Washington mills, at Lawrence, Mass., and the Assabet mills, at Maynard, Mass., the company has also decided to close the Lebanon and Massena mills and Baltic mills, of Enfield, in the Massena Valley, N. H., for a similar period. These mills employ a total of about ten thousand hands.

The shutdown, the company announces, is for the purpose of giving the employees a vacation and to admit of repairs and improvements at several plants.

August Sale of Beautiful Silks

70,000 Yards, in Splendid Variety, at Low Prices

The silk market has been so bare of large and good underprice offerings of Silks this season that we almost gave up having an August Sale. High-priced raw silk and labor troubles discouraged many manufacturers, and there was little surplus on the market.

A few days ago we found four large manufacturers, who had surplus stocks of just the kinds of silks we wanted, and we secured

Thirty Choice Offerings

At an Average Saving of a Third

Some of the reductions are less, but many are a full half of the value; thus presenting a splendid opportunity to careful women who will buy their Fall Silks a few weeks ahead of the needtime and profit by these large savings, as well as secure the services of dressmakers before the rush time begins.

The offering includes Printed Silks of many kinds, neat Fancy Silks in great variety; White, Black and Colored Taffetas; Plain and Fancy Black Silks; Corded Wash Silks in White; Glace Silks, plain and fancy; neat Striped Silks in many styles.

The August Furniture Sale

Is at Its Zenith

The past two weeks have brought the largest selling we ever knew in August; but the superb stocks provided this year deserve it, and more.

This morning our floors are refilled with fine lots that have just arrived.

It Is a Superb Collection!

It is furniture that will delight the eyes as much as the splendid economies will gratify the sense of thrift.

Chiefest interest to-day will probably centre around

A Fine Collection of Two Hundred Pieces of Rattan Furniture at Half Price

The furniture that is the chief charm and comfort of library, sitting-room or sewing room, as well as the summer cottage.

Under-price offerings of Rattan Furniture are quite exceptional, and really fine goods AT HALF PRICE are most extraordinary. But we secured the sample line and surplus pieces from one of the best concerns making rattan goods; and the prices were cut right in two to make this one of the most stirring features of this August Sale.

There is not a housekeeper within shopping distance of WANAMAKER'S to-day who will not want to look over this fine collection and pick out at least a piece or two when prices are so little as now.
